DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1 – 3, 6, 7, and 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Niamir (U.S. Pat. Pub. No. 2002/0027567) (Listing Network for Classified Information).

2.1 Regarding claim 1, Niamir discloses a system for managing digital images, comprising:

a plurality of user computers each having an image storage device having at least one image file of an image, said user computers identifying at least one authorized third party that may have access to said at least one image file (Abstract; Figs. 1, 2, 5; paragraphs 99, 57); and a server for allowing controlled access to said at least image file stored on said user image storage device capable of communicating with said plurality of user computers over a communication network and receiving the identified at least one authorized third party that may access the stored image file, said server controlling access to said at least one digital file on said computer when said at least one authorized third party places a request to said server to access said at least one image file whereby said server first accesses said at least one image file on said user computer and then forwards said at least one image file to said third party without further authorization by said user (Abstract "peer-to-peer computer network"; Figs. 1, 2, 5; paragraph 99; paragraph 57 (see below)).

Optionally system 10 comprises one or more authentication servers 64 (FIG. 1) connected to network 14. Authentication servers 64 may comprise software hosted on the same computers that are hosting CSS software 50. Authentication servers 64 receive user ID and password from authorized users of system 10 (or otherwise authenticate the users) and respond with an authentication message. Users who are authenticated can then have their listings 30 synchronized with and saved at a CSS 16 from where they can be retrieved by other users of system 10 for searching. A user may have an account on an authentication server 64 such that by logging on to the authentication server (for example by entering a username and password) the user can authenticate himself/herself. (paragraph 99).

System 10 operates as follows. Over time, users of user computer systems 12 invoke LLS 18 to generate listings 30. Listings 30 are initially stored in a database 20 on the user computer system 12 from which the listing originated. Each LLS 18 uploads identifying information about its locally stored listings 30 to one or more of CSSs 16. Each listing may include one or more file attachments 30A. File attachments may include, for example, picture files, detailed descriptions, menus, audio or video files or the like.

Art Unit: 2141

Large file attachments 30A are typically not uploaded to CSS 16. Upon receipt of a new listing 30, CSS 16 stores the listing in database 54 and indexes the listing 30, as appropriate. (paragraph 57).

2.2 Per claim 2, Niamir teaches a system according to claim 1 wherein said at least one digital image file includes an electronic address for identifying that image came from said user computer (Abstract; Figs. 2, 5; paragraph 99).

2.3 Regarding claim 3, Niamir discloses a system according to claim 1 therein said third party pays an access fee for use and/or down loading of said image from said user image file (p. 8, paragraphs 103, 104, 105, 106, 107 (see below)).

By way of example, a first user might post a listing offering a collectable item for sale for a certain price. A second user might conduct a search and locate the listing. The second user wants to purchase the item and activates the acceptance control on the second user's user interface. The second user's local listing server software generates a message to the first user informing the first user that the second user wishes to purchase the item. Optionally the second user may enter a text message to be sent to the first user along with the acceptance. The first user agrees to the purchase by operating the acceptance control provided by the first user's local listing server software (the user interface may provide different controls for sending an indication of acceptance to a first user who posts a listing and to allow the first user to respond to an indication of acceptance by a second user). The first user's local listing server software also sends a message including the address of the second user, the address of the first user and a transaction price to an e-commerce server. E-commerce server 31 generates and sends to the second user a form requesting from the second user payment information. The second user enters, for example, the second user's credit card information and operates confirmation control 35. E-commerce server 31 validates the credit card transaction and sends a message to the local listing server software of the first user that the payment has been processed. The first user can then ship the item to the second user and obtain payment from the operator of the e-commerce server. (paragraph 107).

2.4 Per claims 6, 7, and 21, the rejection of claims 1 – 3 under 35 USC 102(e) (paragraphs 2.1 – 2.3 above) applies fully.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 17 – 20 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed 5/26/06 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant's arguments are directed toward a Napster reference by Scholl.
